Eliza Jennings Senior Care Network, Devon Oaks Honored with Awards for Occupational Safety

Northeast Ohio-based Senior Services Provider Recognized for Commitment to Provide a Safe Work Environment

CLEVELAND – May 27, 2008 – Eliza Jennings Senior Care Network, celebrating 120 years of providing excellent care and services to older adults, was recently honored with two awards at the 77th Annual Occupational Safety and Hygiene Awards Banquet, co-sponsored by the Greater Cleveland Safety Council and the Ohio Bureau of Workers' Compensation. The 100% Award was presented to the Network in recognition of its working the entire year without a lost-time injury or illness. This is the second consecutive year the organization has won this award. Devon Oaks, the Network's assisted living community in Westlake, earned the Achievement Award for reducing its accident rate by 25 percent or more over the previous year.

“The underpinning of our mission is a holistic approach to the health and well-being of our employees and the people we serve and, in particular, to their safety,” said Deborah Lewis Hiller, President and Chief Operating Officer. “It is deeply gratifying to be recognized for our efforts and the systems that we've established to ensure that we offer the best service and a safe environment to those we serve.”

Eliza Jennings Senior Care Network and Eliza Jennings Services are members of The Greater Cleveland Safety Council, a Bureau of Workers' Compensation program. This membership reflects the organization's commitment to the prevention of employee accidents & incidents in the workplace.
